

AKATHIST TO THE SAINTS OF NORTH AMERICA

( Reader service: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us and save us.)

Priest:  Blessed is our God always now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Priest: Glory to Thee, our God. Glory to Thee.

O Heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of truth, Who art everywhere present and fillest all things, the Treasury of good things and Giver of life: Come and abide in us, and cleanse us from every stain and save our souls, O good One.

Reader: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (3x) Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake. Lord, have mercy. (3x)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed by Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest:  For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory: of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Reader: Amen. Lord, have mercy. (12x)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

Psalm 50 (LXX)

Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy Great Mercy; and according to the multitude of Thy compassions blot out my transgression. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I know mine iniquity, and my sin is ever before me. Against Thee only have I sinned and done this evil before Thee, that Thou mightest be justified in Thy words, and prevail when Thou art judged. For behold, I was conceived in iniquities, and in sins did my mother bear me. For behold, Thou hast loved truth; the hidden and secret things of Thy wisdom hast Thou made manifest unto me. Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be made clean; Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow. Thou shalt make me to hear joy and gladness; the bones that be humbled, they shall rejoice. Turn Thy face away from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation, and with Thy governing Spirit establish me. I shall teach transgressors Thy ways, and the ungodly shall turn back unto Thee. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou God of my salvation; my tongue shall rejoice in Thy righteousness. O Lord, Thou shalt open my lips, and my mouth shall declare Thy praise. For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I had given it; with whole-burnt offerings Thou shalt not be pleased. A sacrifice unto God is a broken spirit; a heart that is broken and humbled God will not despise. Do good, O Lord, in Thy good pleasure unto Zion, and let the walls of Jerusalem be built up. Then shalt Thou be pleased with a sacrifice of righteousness, with oblation and whole-burnt offerings. Then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Only-begotten, Begotten of the Father before all worlds, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made; of one essence with the Father, by Whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became man. And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried. And on the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures. And ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father. And He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead, Whose Kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe in One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Troparion (Tone 8)

As the bountiful harvest of your sowing of salvation;
The lands of North America offer to Thee, O Lord, all the Saints who have shone in them,
By their prayers keep the Church and our land in abiding peace,
Through the Theotokos, O Most merciful One!

Kontakion One

With grateful hearts we sing praises in your honor, O All Saints of North America. You gave your lives to the Lord as an offering of love. You are the first fruits of Christ's bountiful harvest here in the New World. As faithful servants of your Master you labored in the Vineyard of His Holy Church. Through your example you have shown us the joy of the Orthodox Way. As we assemble today to honor you we cry: Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Oikos One

We glorify the Lord Who has glorified you, O sanctified men, women, and children of these North American lands. We stand in awe before your countless miracles revealed to us by Our Father in heaven. Together with the bodiless choirs, we offer to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O holy Father Tikhon, Patriarch of Moscow and enlightener of North America,
Rejoice, O Hierarch Innocent, Alaskan missionary and evangelizer of the Aleuts,
Rejoice, O Hierarch John, wonderworker of Shanghai and San Francisco,
Rejoice, O blessed Raphael, first Bishop of Brooklyn and faithful shepherd,
Rejoice, O holy Nicholai, confessor and teacher of heavenly theology,
Rejoice, O venerable Herman elder and wonderworker of Alaska,
Rejoice, O Hieromartyrs Juvenaly, Alexander and John, and martyr Peter, martyrs crowned by God,
Rejoice, O Jacov and Alexis, pastors and teachers of the Orthodox Way,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Two

O Holy New Martyrs of North America, we honor your lives by recounting the many sufferings that led to your holy deaths. You were faithful to the Lord to the very end, and have been crowned as faithful witnesses in the Kingdom of Heaven. Through your victories we are delivered from the snares of the evil one, so that we might sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Two

The Church of North America is renewed and purified through the shedding of your blood, O Faithful Witnesses of Christ. Through your sufferings you strengthen and enliven those who follow in your footsteps down the hard and narrow way. Seeing you clothed in white robes and glorified by the Lord of hosts, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O holy Tikhon, long-suffering confessor and Patriarch of Moscow, Rejoice, O soldiers of Christ, who fought and persevered to the very end, Rejoice, O New Martyrs, who triumphed over the prince of darkness, Rejoice, O Father Alexander, passion-bearer of Moscow!
Rejoice, O heavenly patrons of the North American Church,
Rejoice, O holy Peter, shining star of the Aleut people,
Rejoice, O John, first martyr of the Bolshevik revolution,
Rejoice, O holy Juvenaly, zealous preacher of Grace,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Three

As you guided your people to the homeland of God's Kingdom, you proved yourselves defenders of the faith entrusted to you, O Confessors and Stewards of the North American Church. Having rightly directed the word of the truth, you preserve us from the injury of false teachings. You gave yourself to imprisonment, sufferings, and death, remaining faithful all the while to the One Who is Faithful and True. As we behold your steadfastness in times of affliction, we sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Three

The great adversary and enemy of our souls never ceases his ferocious attacks against the Holy Church. Hating the light of the Father's Radiance that shines from your lives, the children of the evil one condemned you to prolonged captivity and death, O long-suffering ones. As your grateful children, we offer to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O Hierarch Tikhon, protector of the sacred treasures of the Church,
Rejoice, O valiant preachers of the Wisdom, Word, and Power of God,
Rejoice, O holy Nicholai, defender of your people in times of oppression,
Rejoice, O Comfort of those persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
Rejoice, O inspired teachers of the royal way of Orthodox theology,
Rejoice, O Father John, loyal priest and intercessor for the faithful,
Rejoice, O divine guardians of the Tradition of the Holy Apostles,
Rejoice, O faithful guides leading us on the path of salvation,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Four

As imitators of the Twelve Apostles, you traveled to the North American continent in order to make disciples of its many peoples. Through your preaching you gave an Indication of the Way into the Kingdom of Heaven. Your teachings have illumined us with The Word of salvation. In this way you labored to the very end, so that we might sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Four

With love and zeal you tilled the soil of the North American lands with the divine seed of the Gospel. The sowing of Christ's divine word was cultivated in the hearts of your people through your faithful ministry. You uprooted the tares of false teachings and brought forth a great harvest of faith here in the New World. Together with the Holy Apostles we offer to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O Visionaries of the Orthodox Church in America,
Rejoice, O Dispellers of spiritual darkness and ignorance,
Rejoice, O inexhaustible treasuries of Divine Wisdom,
Rejoice, O zealous defenders of the One True Faith,
Rejoice, O chosen successors of the Holy Apostles,
Rejoice, O faithful guardians of the Holy Mysteries,
Rejoice, O living icons of the evangelical life,
Rejoice, O Teachers of Orthodox doctrine,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Five

The Lord sent you to this new land in order to enlighten its people with knowledge of God. Through your words you have overcome the darkness of error and unbelief. Through your deeds you have shown us the fruit of a virtuous way of life. Inspired by your labors and your ceaseless preaching of the Gospel, we sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Five

After His resurrection, the glorified Son of God sent His Twelve Apostles to the ends of the earth in order to declare His name among all nations. In these latter days, the Lord has sent you, as Equals to the Apostles, in order to teach us the commandments of the Gospel. Following in your footsteps, O Apostles and Evangelists of North America, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O Hierarch Tikhon, pioneer of Orthodoxy in North America,
Rejoice, O Father Innocent, missionary and master of languages,
Rejoice, O Hierarch John, whose love knew no bounds of country or race,
Rejoice, O guardians of the Mysteries of the Kingdom of God,
Rejoice, O shepherds, protecting your flock from the enemy,
Rejoice, O laborers in the Vineyard of Christ's Holy Church,
Rejoice, O Raphael, blessed teacher of Orthodox doctrine,
Rejoice, O zealous preachers of Christ's resurrection,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Six

In obedience to the will of God you left your ancestral homelands, O Holy Hierarchs of North America. In order to fulfill your episcopal work you sailed the great oceans and crossed vast continents. With diligence you sought after your scattered flock and guided them to the shelter of the Lord's Church. As Loving Fathers you fed your children with the teachings of the Gospel, so that we might sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Six

O Holy Hierarchs of North America, you endured many wants and hardships in order to fulfill your episcopal work here in this new land. Through your lowliness, we have been exalted in Christ. Through your poverty, we have become rich in the Spirit. As models of virtue, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O holy bishops, intercessors before the throne of Christ,

Rejoice, O Father Innocent, evangelizer of the Northern peoples,

Rejoice, O Patriarch Tikhon defender of the Apostolic Tradition,

Rejoice, O Archbishop John, precious vessel of the gifts of the Holy Spirit,

Rejoice, O blessed Raphael, teacher of the American peoples,

Rejoice, O Confessor Nicholai, spring of heavenly theology,

Rejoice, O teachers of the children of the heavenly Father,

Rejoice, O divine clarions of the Gospel of grace,

Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Seven

Guided by the grace of the Holy Spirit, you crossed the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans on your way to the New World in order to fulfill your apostolic witness, O Holy Missionaries and Evangelists of North America. Following the legacy of Saints

Cyril and Methodius, you translated the Scriptures and liturgical services into the tongues of the local peoples and established schools for the training of native clergy. All of this you have done, so that we might sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Seven

Burning with the love of Christ, you traveled across the span of North America in order to nurture and edify the Church which God obtained through the blood of His own Son. As inheritors of your fruitful work, O Sanctified Hierarchs and Evangelists, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O heroic imitators of the chosen Apostles Peter and Paul,
Rejoice, O teachers of the first principles of the Gospel of God,
Rejoice, O honorable models of righteousness and holiness,
Rejoice, O trustworthy guides on the road to eternal life,
Rejoice, O noble messengers of the grace of Jesus Christ,
Rejoice, O good shepherds of the Church in America,
Rejoice, O zealous instructors of Orthodox theology,
Rejoice, O humble servants following the will of God,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Eight

Following the example of the Holy Fathers, you dedicated yourselves to many spiritual labors and struggles, O blessed monastics and ascetics of the New World. You have revealed to us the fruits of true holiness. Your obedience to the will of God has confirmed for us the promises of the Gospel. Your poverty and humility have shone forth as examples for all the inhabitants of North America. Seeing you clothed in glory and exalted with Christ, we sing: Alleluia!

Oikos Eight

By observing the commandments of the Gospel, you showed the peoples of North America the path to righteousness and holiness, O venerable and God-bearing monastics. Working together with the grace of God, we imitate your meekness and purity of heart, so that we might sing these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O Father Herman, founder of monasticism in the New World,
Rejoice, O venerable Monastics, fountain of marvelous wonders,
Rejoice, O Champions of Orthodoxy here in the New World,
Rejoice, O Conversers with angels and the Theotokos,
Rejoice, O Treasury of the Orthodox Church in America,
Rejoice, O wondrous Ascetics, comfort of the afflicted,
Rejoice, O Well-springs of holiness in North America,
Rejoice, O Protectors of the poor and dispossessed,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Nine

Forsaking the vanity of this world, O blessed ascetics of North America, you became true disciples of the Divine Teacher by acquiring the gifts of the Holy Spirit. You fought the demons and overcame their power by the power of the sign of the Cross. Through self-denial and abstinence you have shone forth the inward beauty of holiness and righteousness. Emulating your life of repentance, we sing to God: Alleluia!

Oikos Nine

As living vessels of the grace of Jesus Christ, you sanctify this new land, O our venerable fathers and mothers of the North American continent. You offer to God a sacrifice of loving intercession for those who follow your way. As we assemble to honor your memory, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O blessed ones whose names are written in the Book of Life,
Rejoice, O valiant soldiers who fought the enemies of Christ,
Rejoice, O speedy defenders of those in need of justice,

Rejoice, O wondrous partakers of the heavenly manna,
Rejoice, O restoration of those fallen into grievous sins,
Rejoice, O marvelous fountain of healing for the sick,
Rejoice, O divine freedom from the insanity of evil,
Rejoice, O passionate lovers of virtue,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Ten

Your blameless way of life is a source of amazement to the angels, O you Righteous Ones, known and unknown, of North America. Assisted by the Holy Spirit, you firmly established the Orthodox Faith in this new land. With patience and diligence you built upon a foundation laid long ago with Christ Himself as the cornerstone. Having received from you the riches of faith, we sing to God: Alleluia!

Oikos Ten

Doing all things for the glory of God and the love of your neighbor, you fulfilled your calling to holiness, O Righteous Ones of North America. You accomplished the tasks given to you, according to the measure of grace given to you by the Lord. You fished the great waters of the Alaskan North; you tilled the fertile soils of the Canadian and Midwestern plains; you labored under harsh conditions in the mines and mills; you toiled day and night in factories of the American cities, all so that we might sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O faithful who took up your crosses and followed Christ,
Rejoice, O honored citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven,
Rejoice, O royal priesthood of the New Jerusalem,
Rejoice, O holy nation of the Prince of Peace,
Rejoice, O chosen vessels of the Holy Spirit,
Rejoice, O pillars of Orthodoxy in America,
Rejoice, O Eternal City of the living God,
Rejoice, O pious teachers of the faith,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Eleven

The Wisdom, Word, and Power of God, begotten from His Father before the beginning of time, was incarnate in these latter days from His Holy Mother, the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary. Through the grace of the Spirit, O Blessed Ones of North America, you thereby became partakers of the Divine Nature and have been perfected after the image of the One Who is the express image of His Divine Father. Together with you we sing to God: Alleluia!

Oikos Eleven

The King of heaven and earth humbled himself by taking the form of a servant in order to become the least and the last of His brethren. In His never-ending love for man, He poured Himself out fully, so that we might be filled with all the fullness of His grace. Following His example, O you Righteous Ones of North America, you served the ones to whom you were sent. You healed the sick, you gave aid to the poor, you sought out the lost, you raised infants, you guided the youth, you cared for the elderly, all so that we might sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O holy bishops, gracious adornments of the lands of North America,
Rejoice, O hieromartyrs, benefactors of the faithful living in the New World,
Rejoice, O fervent evangelists, great preachers of the saving Word of God,
Rejoice, O patient confessors, illumination of those living in darkness,
Rejoice, O monastics, bright stars of the Northern heavens,
Rejoice, O blessed ascetics, wonder of the angelic hosts,
Rejoice, O venerable fathers, guides of the fallen,
Rejoice, O holy mothers, life of your children,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Twelve

Surrounded by your heavenly glory, O Hierarchs, Martyrs, Apostles, Monastics and all righteous men and women of North America, known and unknown, we beseech you, as your spiritual children, to intercede for us before Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. We worship the Lord Who has given you to us as Heavenly Patrons and Guardians for the protection and salvation of our souls and bodies. Together with the Bodiless Hosts, we sing to God: Alleluia!

Oikos Twelve

We celebrate your great works, All Saints of North America. We offer thanks to Christ for the wondrous deeds you have accomplished through Him for the enlightenment of all men, women, and children living in this new land. Together with God's elect, we sing to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O divine exaltation of the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific West,
Rejoice, O gracious adornments of New England and the Atlantic states,
Rejoice, O joyful beacons of the Great Lakes and the Midwestern plains,
Rejoice, O heavenly constellation of the Canadian Provinces,
Rejoice, O wondrous aurora of Alaska and the Arctic North,
Rejoice, O shining stars of the North American continent,
Rejoice, O brilliant flowers of the Southwestern deserts,
Rejoice, O fragrant blossoms of the American South,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion Thirteen (3x)

O Holy Luminaries of North America, look down upon us your sinful servants and accept this present supplication. Entreat the Lord Jesus Christ that He will continue to bestow upon us His many mercies. Be a refuge and a protection for us that we might be delivered from all physical and spiritual harm. Continue to guide us into the heavenly Kingdom, so that we might sing: Alleluia!

Oikos One

We glorify the Lord Who has glorified you, O sanctified men, women, and children of these North American lands. We stand in awe before your countless miracles revealed to us by Our Father in heaven. Together with the bodiless choirs, we offer to you these words of loving praise:

Rejoice, O holy Father Tikhon, Patriarch of Moscow and enlightener of North America,
Rejoice, O Hierarch Innocent, Alaskan missionary and evangelizer of the Aleuts,
Rejoice, O Hierarch John, wonderworker of Shanghai and San Francisco,
Rejoice, O blessed Raphael, first Bishop of Brooklyn and faithful shepherd,
Rejoice, O holy Nicholai, confessor and teacher of heavenly theology,
Rejoice, O venerable Herman elder and wonderworker of Alaska,
Rejoice, O Hieromartyrs Juvenaly, Alexander and John, and martyr Peter, martyrs crowned by God,
Rejoice, O Jacov and Alexis, pastors and teachers of the Orthodox Way,
Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Kontakion One

With grateful hearts we sing praises in your honor, O All Saints of North America. You gave your lives to the Lord as an offering of love. You are the first fruits of Christ's bountiful harvest here in the New World. As faithful servants of your Master you labored in the Vineyard of His Holy Church. Through your example you have shown us the joy of the Orthodox Way. As we assemble today to honor you we cry: Rejoice, All Saints of North America!

Reader: It is truly meet to bless thee, O Theotokos, the ever-blessed and all-blameless, and the Mother of our God. More honorable than the cherubim, and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim, thou who without corruption bearest God the Word, and art truly Theotokos, we magnify thee.

Prayer to the North American Saints

Deacon: Let us pray to all the Saints of North America!

People: O All Saints of North America, pray to God for us!

Priest: O all-blessed and wise Saints of God, who have sanctified North America by your holy deeds, leaving your relics as seeds of the Orthodox Faith, and who now stand before the throne of God in ceaseless prayer for our land! We sinners make bold on this day to offer this hymn of praise. We exalt your great and holy deeds, O spiritual warriors of Christ, who with patience and courage have vanquished the enemy completely, delivering us from his craft and cunning. We bless your holy lives, O lamps of God, who have shone with the light of faith and virtue and have illumined our minds and hearts to the knowledge of God. We glorify your great miracles, O Flowers of Paradise, who have blossomed in our land, spreading the sweet fragrance of your gifts and wonders. We praise your love that reflects God's own love, O our defenders and intercessors, and trusting in your help, we fall down before you and cry: O Holy Enlighteners Innocent and Tikhon! Help us the faithful of North America to preserve steadfastly the Orthodox faith that you have planted in us as a seed which, watered by divine rain, will bring forth fruit a hundredfold. O Holy Hierarchs John, Nicholai, and Raphael! Confirm the Church in North America by your prayers, and gather the scattered sheep into one flock, preserving it safe from all harm. O Holy Father Herman of Alaska! Keep us from the delusions of this transitory life, that denying ourselves and taking up our cross, we may follow Christ, crucifying our flesh with its lusts and passions, and bearing each other's burdens. O Holy Hieromartyrs Juvenaly, Alexander and John, and martyr Peter! Strengthen us in courageous perseverance even unto the shedding of our blood for the Orthodox faith, so that no adversity may separate us from the love of God, which is in Jesus Christ. O Holy Pastors Jacov and Alexis, guide us along the narrow Way that we may come to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbor as our self. O All Saints, known and unknown, who have shown throughout the history of this land, remember our weakness and hardship, and by your prayers beseech Christ our God, that we, having successfully crossed the fathomless depths of the sea of life, keeping unharmed the treasury of the faith, may reach the harbor of eternal salvation and live in the Kingdom of God on high together with you and all who have served Him throughout all ages. Through the grace and compassion and love of mankind of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to Whom together with the Eternal Father and the Most Holy Spirit be never-ending glory and worship by all creation unto ages of ages.

People: Amen.

The Trisagion Prayers

Reader: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (3x) Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.
